

InterAcct Software's Web Site

InterAcct
SOFTWARE PTY LTD

InterAcct Software have just launched their latest web site design.

In a complete departure from the Computer Industry norm, InterAcct have taken the approach of "Full Disclosure" of their integrated business software package.

There are currently 18 different video demonstrations that can be run from the web site – showcasing the ease of use, flexibility, and just what the InterAcct software package does.

Not only that, but there are also more than one hundred (100) detailed software brochures the can be printed/downloaded – showing screen displays, flowcharts, and explanatory text.
